

I am completely opposed to giving the FCC, any other government or Law Enforcement Agency "wiretapping" privileges via Internet Service Providers. I do not want to extend CALEA to include packet mode networks. I am willing to live with the consequences and/or dangers of this decision. I am not willing to give up my right to privacy out of fear of the unknown.